

Daniel Lindsey Enyart

Ohio Man and Wife Die in Plane Crash Near Indy

Wakeland Ind. AP

A Columbus Ohio man and his wife were killed early Tuesday when their small plane crashed on a farm near Wakeland, about 30 miles southwest of Indianapolis.

The Morgan County Sherriff's Department identified the victims as Daniel L. Enyart, 24, and his wife Judith. Deputies said the plane, a Piper Cherokee, left Columbus en route to Marysville, Kansas. The Federal Aviation Administration said the plane was owned by Ellis E. Evans, also of Columbus.

The plane crashed sometime after midnight, and was found on the John Walter's farm Tuesday afternoon, deputies said. The cause of the crash was not immediately known.

Anderson (Indiana) Herald, December 27, 1972

Crash Kills Couple

Martinsville, Ind. UPI

Daniel Enyart, 24, of Columbus, Ohio, and his wife, Judith, 26, were killed Tuesday when their single-engine plane crashed into a field about ten miles west of here.

Enyart was an electronics instructor at Ohio Institute of Technology in Columbus as well as President and Chief Technical Designer of D & D Technical Services.

Coshocton (Ohio) Tribune, December 27, 1972