Barbara Louise Brown

Barbara Brown Sengelmann

Barbara Brown Sengelmann died on Mother's Day weekend, May 13, 2023, held by her girls, released to light. Barbara was born in Youngstown OH, July 20, 1948. She lived overseas with her babies, and then returned to the states where she spent most of her days between Columbus, OH and Sarasota, FL. Being a mother was her dream job and she did it with love and worry until the end. Barbara is preceded in death by her beloved sister Julie Bonasera, her baby brother Paul David, her parents Paul and Helen Brown, and the love of her life, Bud (Henry Peter) Sengelmann. She is survived and celebrated by her five siblings and their families (whose babies gave her such joy), her daughters and their families: Ashley (Brian) Marotta, Talia and Ryan, Quinn and Stella; Erika (Megan) Randall and Ezra.

Barb, "Tink," had style like a runway, an eye for a photograph and a sale, and a smile that filled the frame. Before cancer and moving from Columbus, OH to Boulder, Colorado to be with her girls, Barbara loved volunteering at Buckeye Bargains to benefit the University Women's Club. Donations can be made there in her name. https://uwcohiostate.com/buckeye-bargains/. To share memories or condolences, visit https://www.dignitymemorial.com/obituaries/boulder-co/barbara-sengelmann-11290944

Posted online on June 08, 2023